Bodbe-Signaghi-Kakheti Tour

After Having a Breakfast in your hotel, you will meet the Driver and Guide in your hotel lobby, and depart towards the Kakheti region of Georgia, the cradle of Georgian winemaking.
Our first stop will be in Bodbe monastery complex functioning as a nunnery since 1889, which according to the legend is a burial place of St. Nino, who converted Georgia to Christianity in the 4th century.
Continue to Sighnaghi, the city of love and the Royal Town, one of the crossroads of the Great Silk Road surrounded by defensive walls with 23 towers. After that, you will head to KTW. Kakhetian Traditional Winemaking preserves the ancient Georgian wine-making traditions, combining them with modern technologies to offer exceptional wines, stunning and storied heritage of Georgia - The Cradle of Wine. The company has been learning Kakhian technologies since the first steps of its existence. It keeps ancient traditions of wine-making and uses clay vessels for preserving the best quality of wine.
Here you can take part in any kind of activities and also taste more than 30 varieties of the best wine produced locally, before departing back to your hotel in Tbilisi.

Borjomi and Rabati Tour

After Having a Breakfast in your hotel, you will meet the Driver and Guide in your hotel lobby, and hit the Highway to the western part of Georgia towards Borjomi National Park. Borjomi is a famous resort town, popular for its distinct mineral water. Borjomi has many hotels and was very popular in soviet times, of which you will still find many buildings in the city. Above the center of the city there lies a plateau with a Ferris wheel and further hotels, providing a great view over the region and mountains. After enjoying your time in the City Amusement Park, you will continue your road towards newly renovated Rabati Castle located in Akhaltsikhe. Originally the Castle was built in 9th Century but has been recently renovated and reopened for the visitors. The castle has been destroyed several times during its existence and finally it was completely rebuilt by Ottomans During the Great ottoman invasion in Georgia. This castle is also considered to be the symbol of tolerance and unity in Georgia since it always had shrines of 3 major religions, Christian, Muslin and Jewish standing side by side. Nowadays most of the surviving buildings date from the 17th and 18th centuries and stand proud over the highly fortified cliff.
